DISSERTATION/THESIS FORMATTING TEMPLATE

Please note the following:

- The formatting template is a resource to help format your dissertation/thesis per the University's formatting requirements. It does not conform to any style manual. While the formatting requirements take precedence over specifications that may be given in a department's required style manual, it is expected that you will work with your department/oral defense committee to ensure you are meeting any additional style requirements.

- Please be sure you are referring to the University's published formatting requirements in conjunction with the formatting template. The template is not designed to replace the University's formatting requirements.

- The formatting template and information provided within it are offered by the Office of Graduate Education without considering individual thesis/dissertation contents and needs. The formatting template is for general use only. All information is provided in good faith; however, we make no representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, adequacy, reliability or completeness of the template.

Contact the Office of Graduate Education at gradservices@du.edu with any questions.

Important links, deadlines and other information for the dissertation and thesis process can be found on this webpage.
